Short Bio

Iveta Ivanova is a Legal Advisor at IntLaw LLP. She holds an LL.M. in Public International Law from Leiden University and a Master in International Business Law at Tilburg University. Iveta's interests center on international economic law, trade, sanctions, and investment dispute settlement.

Iveta's background includes diplomatic work at the Embassy of Bulgaria in The Hague, where she contributed to reporting on political and legal matters. Iveta has also served as a Research Assistant at Leiden University, conducting targeted research on trade and investment law. At Tilburg University, she actively participated in academic governance and student initiatives, including servicing as a cohort representative and as a Student Assistant with Tilburg Young Academy.

At IntLaw LLP, Iveta works across the firm's international law matters. Her portfolio includes supervising the drafting of written submissions in international proceedings; preparing legal memoranda and reports for States on trade and investment; assisting with hearing preparation; and developing materials for capacity-building workshops and other IntLaw LLP's events. She also supports the IntLaw Cup as part of the coordination team.
