Short Bio

Kristijan Petkovski is an International Law Fellow at IntLaw LLP. He holds an LL.M. in Public International Law, Private International Law, International Relations and EU Law from the University Ss. Cyril and Methodius, Faculty of Law Iustinianus Primus. Kristijan's interests center on public international law, international human rights and refugee law, and treaty-based arbitration.

During his studies, Kristijan participated in several international moot court competitions, including the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court, the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot, and the Frankfurt Investment Arbitration Moot Court. He has gained professional experience within a Macedonian law firm and is qualified through the Macedonian Bar Examination. In addition, Kristijan completed specialized coursework in refugee law and authored academic research addressing refugee camps and the legal protection of displaced persons.

At IntLaw LLP, Kristijan works across the firm's international law matters. His portfolio includes contributing to written submissions in international proceedings; preparing legal memoranda and reports for States on trade and investment; assisting with hearing preparation; and developing materials for capacity-building workshops and other IntLaw LLP's events.
