Short Bio

Luka Avazashvili is an International Law Fellow at IntLaw LLP. He holds an LL.B. from Free University of Tbilisi and is pursuing an LL.M. in Global Business Law and Regulation at Central European University in Vienna. Luka's interests center on international commercial and investment arbitration, international commercial law, and a broader engagement with public international law and emerging technologies.

Luka's professional background includes experience as a compliance officer in the private sector and, prior to that, as an associate in legal practice, with work spanning regulatory compliance, commercial transactions, and dispute resolution. Beyond his professional practice, Luka is actively engaged in the international legal community and Georgian civic life. He also has a strong track record in international moot court competitions, including the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot, the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition, and the Cross Examination Moot, among others, both as a participant and as a coach.

At IntLaw LLP, Luka works across the firm's international law matters. His portfolio includes contributing to written submissions in international proceedings; preparing legal memoranda and reports for States on trade and investment; assisting with hearing preparation; and developing materials for capacity-building workshops and other IntLaw LLP events.
