Short Bio

Iveta Ivanova is an International Law Fellow at IntLaw LLP. She holds an LL.M. in Public International Law from Leiden University and is completing a Master's in International Business Law at Tilburg University. Iveta's interests center on international economic law, trade, sanctions, and investment dispute settlement.

Iveta's background includes diplomatic work at the Embassy of Bulgaria in The Hague, where she contributed to reporting on political and legal matters. Iveta has also served as a Research Assistant at Leiden University, conducting targeted research on trade and investment law. At Tilburg University, she actively participated in academic governance and student initiatives, including servicing as a cohort representative and as a Student Assistant with Tilburg Young Academy.

At IntLaw, Iveta works across the firm's international law matters. Her portfolio includes contributing to written submissions in international proceedings; preparing legal memoranda and reports for States on trade and investment; assisting with hearing preparation; and developing materials for capacity-building workshops and other IntLaw events. She also supports the IntLaw Cup as part of the coordination team.
