Short Bio

Jonathan Lay is a Legal Advisor at IntLaw LLP. He holds an Advanced LL.M. in Law and Finance from Leiden University, where his thesis delved on Balancing Innovation and the Ethical Governance of Artificial Intelligence in Bank Credit Assessments in the European Union. He also earned an LL.B. with honors from the University of Leeds, focusing on company, competition, and international and domestic commercial law.

Jonathan's interests lie at the intersection of international economic law, financial regulation, and the governance of emerging technologies. Prior to joining IntLaw LLP, he worked at the United Kingdom Ministry of Defense, at leading United Kingdom law firms, and in the banking sector, where he collaborated in delivering decision-ready briefings, coordinated stakeholders, and supported policy implementation on complex, time-critical issues.

At IntLaw LLP, Jonathan works across public international law and international economic law matters. His portfolio includes supervising and drafting written submissions for States in international and regional proceedings, preparing legal memoranda and reports for clients, assisting with hearing preparation, and developing materials for capacity-building workshops and other IntLaw LLP's events. He also supports the IntLaw Cup as part of the coordination team.
