

PAULA FONDEVILA PAREDES

International Law Fellow

Location Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Areas of Focus Public International Law
International Human Rights Law
International Environmental Law
International Criminal Law

Languages Spanish
German
English
French

Short Bio

Paula Fondevila Paredes is an International Law Fellow at IntLaw LLP. She is currently pursuing an LL.M. in International and Transnational Criminal Law at the University of Amsterdam, following her LL.B. in European Law from Maastricht University. Her academic interests focus on international criminal law and human rights.

Her academic trajectory is international in scope, including exchange semesters at Dauphine University in Paris and the City University of Hong Kong. Professionally, she strengthened her cross-border legal experience as a trainee at a leading law firm in Madrid, assisting with legal research, contractual structuring, and drafting.

In parallel, Paula is actively engaged in academic and advocacy initiatives. She currently serves as Director for Academic Activities at the European Law Students' Association, organizing lectures and workshops for law students, and as Communications & Outreach Manager at The Matriarch Alliance. She also chairs the Promotion Committee of Amnesty International's student group in Amsterdam, leading outreach and engagement strategies.

At IntLaw LLP, Paula works across the firm's international law matters. His portfolio includes contributing to written submissions in international proceedings; preparing legal memoranda and reports for States on trade and investment; assisting with hearing preparation; and developing materials for capacity-building workshops and other IntLaw LLP's events.